

Dear Chief, Piche

I just wanted to take a moment to express my genuine appreciation to you and your team regarding our recent hire from your departments work experience program. Your commitment to educating and developing quality firefighters through your department is commendable. The high standards and dedication reflected in your training programs are quite evident in this individual.

This firefighter demonstrates exceptional skills and dedication to his craft. From his first day, it was evident that he was not only highly skilled but also a natural fit for a career in firefighting. The training he received through your program has provided him with a solid foundation of technical knowledge and practical experience, which he consistently applies with professionalism and precision.

Furthermore, it is quite obvious he was thoroughly vetted for this profession through you and your team. He consistently demonstrates the qualities essential to becoming an outstanding firefighter—commitment, integrity, and resilience, and he approaches every task with a level of true professionalism and dedication.

Thank you for your invaluable contributions to the firefighting community.

Sincerely,

G. Gallamore,
Deputy Fire Chief
