City of Grand Forks appoints new Manager of Operations

March 13, 2015

Grand Forks, BC – The City of Grand Forks is pleased to announce that David Reid has been appointed as the new Manager of Operations. The organization has been working towards the development of a successful succession plan and David's appointment illustrates we are on the right path.

"I started work at the City as a casual in 1999 and received full time employment in 2002. I am excited to continue working with the great team at outside works in the role of Operations Manager. I have a great respect for the City Managers and look forward to working with the team in my new role." Says Reid.

Chief Administrative Officer, Doug Allin, is looking forward to working with David and welcomes him to the management team.
