From Council Chambers

The FCM Head Start for young Women program is well underway. The program has 6 young women from the area participating.

Congratulations to winners of the Family Day baskets; Vince Lajoie and Precious Ajaero

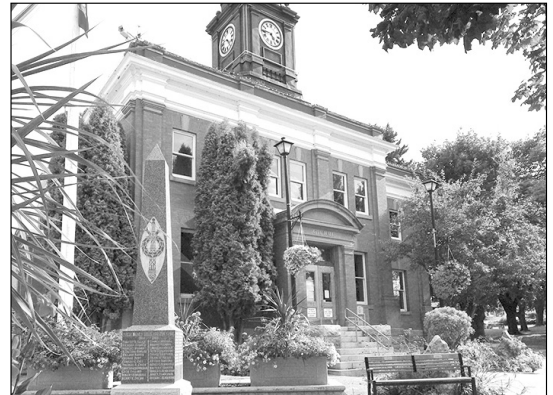

And to Jacob Noseworthy for his participation in the British Columbia Youth Parliament.

Jacob Noseworthy receives a certificate from city councillor, Patrick O'Doherty for his participation in the BC Youth Parliament.

City Hall Restoration

Over the next few weeks the City will be sharing the proposed concepts for the restoration of the City Hall Building. Comments are encouraged. Stay tuned for more information regarding the locations of the displays.

Grant Page coming soon on the City's website.

Event Requests

If you are a community group and are planning to utilize City fields or amenities, now is the time to let us know.

You can do this by filling out an event request form, available on the City website:
